"Buster" Zehrung has sufficiently recovered from his illness of typhoid fever to be up and around the house.

R. A. Cook of Lakeside was in Alliance until the departure of 44 today.

Charles Campbell was arrested Thursday evening charged with being drunk and disorderly. He was fined $5 and costs this morning in police court.

Tom Beeson, manager of the Alliance telephone exchange, leaves tonight for Kimball and Paxton, Nebraska, on a business trip. He will visit with his family at Paxton.

A new cement sidewalk, constructed by J. J. Vance, takes the place of the board walk on the south and west sides of the lots occupied by the Kent sisters' rooming house, northeast corner of Niobrara avenue and Third street.

"You people did remarkably well," said a prominent Alliance business man, speaking to a Herald representative regarding Thursday morning's extra. And his remark was only a specimen of many others that were made during the day.

Busine at the Alliance Cleaning Work has increased to such an extent that Mrs. Zehrung has found it necessary to employ more help, accordingly Mrs. Hattie Owen will begin work there next Monday and continue during the fall and winter.

General Yardmaster O. E. Williams and family are moving today from 1019 Cheyenne avenue to 324 Big Horn.

F. E. Holsten returned Thursday noon from a business trip to Chicago. He also stopped in Omaha on business on the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham, from the north part of the county, were trading in Alliance today. They getting well advanced in years, but are both hale and hearty and can hitch up and drive to town and attend to their other work very nicely without the assistance of younger people.

The Misses Dora and Lavetta Tuttle gave a very pleasant party to about twenty of their young friends at the residence of their mother, 823 Box Butte avenue, Wednesday evening. Game such as are usually indulged in on such occasions were played and the evening's enjoyment increased by refreshments.

Nick and John Schnell of Grand Island, father and son, came up to Alliance this morning to look over the country, with a view to investing in real estate. They seemed to be highly pleased with this part of Nebraska, where the crops are so much better than they are in the south-central part of the state.

Pete Watson, one of The Herald's warm Sioux county friends, was in Alliance yesterday afternoon and today forenoon, coming over on the train via Mitchell. He sold over $8,000 worth of cattle a couple of months ago. Although they are worth more money now than when he sold, he is not worrying about that as he has plenty of them left.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hunzicker of Spade, Nebr., drove over to Alliance Tuesday bringing with them their little grandson, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Shirck's five-year-old boy, who has been visiting with his grandparents in Sheridan county during the summer. Mr. Hunzicker brought a winter supply of fine sandhill potatoes for his daughter and son-in-law and their family. He informed The Herald that the potatoes which he has dug so far this fall are running about 125 bushels per acre. He returns home tomorrow, while his wife will remain for a longer visit with her daughter.

From Saturday's Daily:

Police Magistrate Gregory Zurn, who had a severe attack of heart failure Sunday evening, was much better this morning and is at his desk as usual.

An Alliance business man was enjoying a much needed rest last night when he awoke with an awful start to find himself shivering. What was it? Nothing but a measly old fly which had been walking across his face. "Mary," said he, "have you a fly swatter?" "No, John," said she, "but I'm going to put a want ad in next Saturday's Daily Herald for that old stove we want to get rid of, and I will get one of those premium fly swatters. Then you can sleep in peace."

From Tuesday's Daily:
Harry Thiele left yesterday for a short business trip through the valley, expecting to return the latter part of the week.

The P. E. O. met with Mrs. Cogswell Monday afternoon.

Mrs. J. C. McCorkle returned this noon from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Dunning, at Hysham, Montana. She has been there three weeks. Her little grandson is getting along just fine. Mr. and Mrs. Dunning expect to visit friends in Alliance during the holidays.
